

New Swiss-Based Urban Art Gallery Debuts Affordable, Collectible Art For City Residents

By Amanda Peabody

The art world is expanding in the area.

Wednesday, Zurich-based Gallery Kunstwarenhaus debuted Artspace Warehouse featuring cutting edge internationally emerging contemporary artists at affordable prices.

Artspace Warehouse, which is Kunstwarenhaus first U.S. location, will offer original artwork—no prints, posters or reproductions.

The inaugural exhibition, "Urban Desire," features artists such as Carl Smith, Christian Manss, Liz Brizzi, Katie Elm, Simone Dehmelt, Edith Konrad, and Stefan Meyer.

Art is priced from $200-2,000 and clearly sectioned by price.

Special events and lectures will also be offered in the gallery.

Exhibits will be rotated weekly, yet still focus on urban, pop, graffiti, and photo art plus other similar genres.

Artspace Warehouse is located at 7354 Beverly Blvd., and open Wednesday through Saturday from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. For more information, call 323-936-7020 or visit www.artspacewarehouse.com.
